Tour Experience

My official trip to Jerusalem left me in awe. The Old City's narrow alleys, echoing with centuries of prayers at the Western Wall and Church of the Holy Sepulchre, felt profoundly humbling. Amid the structured days, I soaked in the city's spiritual pulse, from the vibrant markets to quiet sunset views over the golden domes.

Jerusalem is a city in the Southern Levant, on a plateau in the Judean Mountains between the Mediterranean and the Dead Sea. It is one of the oldest cities and is considered holy to the three major Abrahamic religions—Judaism, Christianity and Islam. Throughout its long history, Jerusalem has been destroyed at least twice, besieged 23 times, captured and recaptured 44 times, and attacked 52 times.

Then, escaping to Haifa for a breather: those terraced Baha'i Gardens were a masterpiece of serenity, blooming with flowers and fountains that invited deep reflection. The coastal breeze and diverse vibes there perfectly balanced the intensity. I returned recharged and inspired.

Haifa is the third-largest city in Israel—after Jerusalem and Tel Aviv. It is home to the Bahá'í Faith's Bahá'í World Centre, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and destination for Bahá'í pilgrimage.
