Tour Experience

Tilari's dense forests gave me my first taste of wilderness at its peak. A place where conservation is taken seriously and the forest's habitat thrives organically.

For the first time, I drove myself along every forest trail, winding up and down Tilari Ghat, especially for the Night Safari, which was its own thrill. As dusk turned to darkness, I caught glimpses of elusive forest dwellers like the Wild Cat and Nightjar, although luck wasn't on my side for a perfect photo.

Talkat VanUdyan felt like nature's classroom, with insects and birds everywhere. This experience deepened my appreciation for the wild.

The Vanoshi Homestay was a highlight: Pravin Desai's workshops on birdwatching and nature research made each day new, while Sheetal Desai shared fascinating insights during treks on the local flora and fauna.

Exploring Tilari changed how I connect with nature—there, every walk felt intimate and alive.
